

 Note that not all Charter Remotes have been programmed to the actual TV. Often this remote only controls the cable box and the television's factory remote is required as well.*